

Core Sound Rig Contest

Core Sound Waterfowl Museum June 21, 2008
Contact: Walter Gaskill brother@starfish.net or Bob Sutton bobsutton@verizon.net

2nd Annual Core Sound Hunting Rig Contest June 21, 2008 Core Sound Waterfowl Museum and Heritage Center Harkers Island, North Carolina

Rigs will be judged in the water
Entry Fee: $15.00 per rig of six decoys

General Rules

- The decoys in the rig must fit the IWC&A rules for Working Decoys.
- The rigs must have an 8' anchor line attached, no weight needed.
- The rig must be 6 decoys carved and painted by 1-6 carvers. All work must be done by the team that enters the rig.
- The rig must include the names of all carvers involved in that rig.
- No restriction as to the 1 to 6 carvers who make the decoys, but the work must be done by the team that enters the rig.
- Rigs may be any species or combination of species that fit into the categories.
- The contest will be judged in the following three categories: puddle ducks, divers, geese and confidence. No shorebirds.
- The carvers may offer their birds for sale and must tag them with the sale price, including the 25% commission to the museum.
- The Best of Show (1, 2, 3) rigs will remain on display at the museum until September 1, 2008, to promote the art of the Working Decoy.
- Awards: Best Diver, Best Puddler, and Best Goose and Confidence 1, 2, 3; Best of Show 1, 2, 3.
- A carver may take decoys from his hunting rig as long as they fit the rules.

This contest was organized as a fun event and to show different styles of working decoys from across the country. So, team up and get a rig together for the biggest, most fun rig contest in the country. Good luck to all!

Ship rigs to (include pre-paid return shipping):
Core Sound Waterfowl Museum & Heritage Center
1785 Island Road
Harkers Island, NC 28531